Newhern, N. C., Nov. 21, tvia Fortress Monroe, Nov. 27. On Tuesday, some 4000 rebels under Brig. Gen. Martin, attempted to drive in our pickets and take the city. They advanced on the Trent road for Pollocksville and succeeded in driving, after a brisk skirmish, the pickete a short distance. About 800 rebels then marched through the woods seven miles and one company of the Mass. 24th, stationed at Bachelor's Crock on the Railroad. The rebels met with a hot reception and were deleated, falling back in disorder, reshal of the post, was prepared at every point. The Magic Compound when you formished me i appring, when I was sufficing most enterroly from the effect of a long continues cold upon my longs, acred like a charm. The first eight after taking it, I coughed less and slept better than i.r. weaks before, and the use of it featily removed the difficulty entirely. I should see it again in preference to any medicine I have tried when semilarly afficient.
